Using International Certification of Diseases (ICD) Codes to Assess Opioid-Related Overdose Deaths

This tool is designed to support prevention practitioners in using International Classification of Disease (ICD) codes to understand and describe the impact of opioid overdose in their communities. Learn more!

Prevention Perspectives

Is Social Media Harmful to Students with Disabilities?

According to a new white paper co-authored by PS@EDC's Shai Fuxman, students with disabilities are more likely to receive messages of hope and support online, but also more likely to be the victims of cyberbullying. Learn more!

Service Spotlight

PS@EDC Trainings Prepare New York Practitioners to Develop Realistic Evaluation Plans

When New York's Office of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Services rolled out a new set of reporting requirements last spring, they saw a unique opportunity to empower and engage prevention practitioners in evaluation planning. To help them do so, they drew on the resources of Prevention Solutions@EDC. Learn more!
