WHAT IS A COMPREHENSIVE APPROACH TO OPIOID OVERDOSE PREVENTION? (Archived Webinar)

Delivered January 24, 2019, this hour-long webinar explored the benefits of a comprehensive prevention approach and examples of successful implementation. Hear Gary Langis, founding member of the New England Prevention Alliance, and Alejandro Rivero, Program Manager for the Prevention Department at Bay State Community Services and Program Director of Impact Quincy describe their experiences:

- Partnering with communities to design and implement comprehensive plans.
- Building readiness among diverse sectors to participate in overdose prevention efforts.
- Developing “postvention” strategies that have revolutionized community responses to non-fatal overdose.

COMMUNITY OF PRACTICE SUPPORTS SAPST TRAINERS

In mid-February, 49 prevention practitioners from across the country participated in Prevention Solutions@EDC's first community of practice for experienced Substance Abuse Prevention Skills Training (SAPST) trainers. The training offered a unique opportunity for trainers from across the country to share training experiences, troubleshoot problems, and learn about new SAPST resources.
