EDC Solutions to Address Clients' Complex Health and Education Challenges

We can't operate in silos if we want to improve the health of our communities. PS@EDC is walking the walk by joining EDC Solutions. This new initiative provides direct access to EDC services in three critical areas — substance misuse prevention, suicide prevention, and social-emotional learning. Check out the many ways EDC can support your workforce development needs!

PREVENTION FUNDAMENTALS ONLINE: A How-to Training for Substance Misuse Prevention Practitioners and Their Partners

5-day Training: March 21, 23, 25, 28, and 30
11:30 a.m.- 3:30 pm EST

Ready to develop the practical skills needed to build strong substance misuse prevention programs and practices in your state or community?

NOW'S YOUR CHANCE!

This all-virtual, 20-hour training prepares practitioners for the realities of today's substance misuse prevention environment.

- Focused on the needs of individual practitioners working in the field
- Hands-on and highly interactive with new tools to help practitioners hit the ground running
- Reflects updates to the Substance Abuse Prevention Skills Training (2018) but with a greater focus on community mobilization, communications, and addressing health disparities throughout the prevention planning process
- Designed exclusively for a webinar platform—not adapted from an in-person training
- Endorsed by the International Certification and Reciprocity Consortium (IC&RC)

Price: $1000. Length: 20 hours over 2 weeks

Registration Deadline: March 16

Certification: Both the ethics and Prevention Fundamentals trainings have been endorsed by the International Certification & Reciprocity Consortium (IC&RC) and meets the IC&RC's prevention ethics education requirement for prevention specialist credentialing. Certificates for training hours provided.

Service Spotlight

PS@EDC Collaborates with Scituate FACTS to Develop Parent/Caregiver Survey

Scituate FACTS needed data to better understand caregiver attitudes and behaviors toward underage substance use. PS@EDC helped them get it.
