New Services from PS@EDC!

Prevention Solutions@EDC has developed a number of new trainings and TA opportunities to support states and communities in addressing three pressing topics: racial and health inequity, opioid misuse and overdose, and evaluation design and delivery.

- Equity Transformation Services help states develop a comprehensive approach to addressing racial and health inequity through consultation, strategic planning, and training services.
- Community Opioid Collaboratives assist states in developing the support systems communities need to work across sectors to prevent opioid misuse and overdose.
- Innovation Learning Labs increase the number and array of effective interventions to prevent and/or reduce the harm produced by opioid misuse.
- Evaluation Academies build the evaluation capacity of local-level prevention programs.
- Evaluation Coaching prepares local programs to apply evaluation basics to their own evaluation design and implementation.

Online Course: Ethics in Prevention: A Guide for Substance Abuse Prevention Practitioners

July 26-August 6, 2021 | 9:00 AM-5:00 PM ET | Learn more

As substance misuse prevention professionals, we regularly face situations that require us to make ethical decisions. Often it is clear how to act ethically; sometimes it is not.

This moderated online course explores the six principles of the Prevention Code of Ethics, brought to life with realistic examples designed to enhance participant understanding. The course also introduces a decision-making process to help practitioners apply this code to a variety of ethical dilemmas, and an online discussion area to facilitate discussion with other course participants.

Price: $115

Length: 6 hours over 2 weeks

Certification: This ethics training has been endorsed by the International Certification & Reciprocity Consortium (IC&RC) and meets the IC&RC's prevention ethics education requirement for prevention specialist credentialing. Certificates for training hours provided.

Registration Deadline: July 22
